Having no expertise in Internet Marketing besides reading a couple of e-books, I came with an open mind and left with more information and ideas than I thought could be possible with an Internet Marketing business. The novice can come in knowing very little and leave with all the tools necessary to make thousands upon thousands of dollars on the web, with very little money invested. I’m going home and shifting focus of 2 years of full time real estate investing to Internet Marketing because I see just as big of potential for income with less work and less liability. Mike Walker

I found this to be priceless information to the riches to be found in Internet Marketing. Each speaker is extremely knowledgeable and even better, their successful. The best part however is that participants can take what's been presented and turn it into a profit machine in a remarkably short time. The learning curve shrinks from many years to a few months and thus allows anyone to rapidly progress on the road to financial freedom. Atman Johnson

After attending many boot camps on real estate investing this was a refreshing change. The material covered will help us in our master planning of our business. The speakers covered everything from A to Z. Thanks a million for our future millions. Bob Konet

The Internet boot camp in Orlando was simply the best, most complete seminar I've ever attended. Every presenter was a highly successful Internet specialist. Between what I learned, the contacts I made, the coaching I arranged and the joint venture ideas, I have everything I need to have my Internet business generate a strong six figure income within 4 to 6 months! My only regret is that I didn't attend one of these before. I will definitely be at future Internet boot camps and recommend them to my friends and clients. Preston Campbell

What I like about the Internet boot camp seminar is it is solid information you can use. You gave me the steps I need to get started as soon as I get home. Jaycee Thomas

The boot camp was excellent. I really appreciated everyone's materials and information. I'm looking forward to being a millionaire one day. Velta Reneberg

I attended my first boot camp (not my last) in Orlando, Florida this past weekend. It was a fabulous experience and far exceeded my expectations. The event was well organized, featured some top notch speakers, and it provided me with the opportunity to not only learn a great deal of valuable information but it also helped me to better focus on my goals and objectives.

When I left Seattle, I did not know anyone attending the boot camp, but when I left for home after the third day, I had made many new friendships and established future business relationships.

Thank you for all your hard work and for making such valuable events available to those of us who are willing to "go to the next level" to accelerate our Internet marketing knowledge. David Peha

I came here not knowing a lot about computers and I am leaving with the competency to do my website, maintain it and market it. I also am leaving with a great resource list so I can outsource those things that I don't want to do myself at reasonable prices. Debbie Langley

Whether new or experienced to the Internet, the lineup of superstars makes it a value received worthwhile learning experience. Tom Hatcher

I strongly recommend that anyone who wants to market products on the Internet attend this course. It's way under priced for the potential value and money a person could make compared to all other opportunities to be in business themselves. I've been in my own business for 25 years and one absolutely needs this training to lower the learning curve one has to go through in order to be highly successful. Richard Zwick

A great event hosted by a world class company. Thank you for bringing in the absolute top notch experts. Missing this would have meant years of pain and misery and probable failure in reaching my Internet marketing goals. Carl T. Schwandt

This Internet boot camp really opened my eyes to what is available. The enthusiasm of the experts is energizing. I met some great people and intend to use this info. Peggy Pullman

This is my fourth Internet Boot Camp. I learned as much if not more every time I attend one. These boot camp just keep getting better. High on content without the hype. George Callens

The speakers at the boot camp were very knowledgeable. The speakers alone motivated me to pursue my dream to become financially independent and share my wealth and freedom with others. This enables me to share knowledge and make a difference. Thank you Vicki, Danielle, Ron and Steve for being so friendly, personable and informative. You are truly changing lives. Jose Cox

I have never been to a workshop or boot camp that has given me more valuable information in a more concise manner than this one. All the speakers were extremely knowledgeable in their field of expertise and all the questions I had before I came were answered. Due to this boot camp I now have all the tools I need to implement my business plan. Rozanne Charington

Keep up the good work and continue doing boot camps as fun and as informative as this one.
Deyanin Lincoln

This was a first class event. Excellently put together. Excellent educational program. And most of all, the best possible way to meet people in our industry and create a whole new networking platform from the friendly interaction of everyone there. The speakers were all great...Friendly, helpful and approachable and down to earth. This element is in my opinion the most important and most valuable to capture in any live event. Matt Lopiloato

How's That For A List Of Satisfied Customers!
